Nick McDonell

Twelve A mere shoot of a lad (is he old enough to shave?), teenage writer Nick McDonell proves a preternaturally accomplished author with his debut novel, Twelve. Set in New York City, the book is narrated with chilling objectivity by White Mike, a 17-year-old drug dealer, and centers around his wealthy clientele.

Twelve (novel) - Wikipedia

Self-aware teen writer Nick McDonell's novel "Twelve" burst into the literary market in a spray of irrelevant hype earlier this year. With a painfully two-dimensional cast and a fragmented non-storyline, "Twelve" is not shocking, just shockingly dull.
