Vigilante (Dangerous Times Collection Book #3) by Robin ...

Vigilante by Robin Parrish Another great book by Robin Parrish. This time we get to read Vigilante. This book starts off with a National hero dying. Only, well, he isn't quite so dead as everyone thinks. Instead he has a plan. While the world mourns the death of Nolan Grey, Nolan is on a mission to change the world.

Robin Parrish always writes stories with interesting premises (though there is one in particular that I did not appreciate), so I was excited to read his latest - Vigilante. Once again, Parrish certainly doesn't disappointed with a cookie-cutter plot or one that has been rehashed too many times in Christian fiction circles.

Robin Parrish - StoneHouse Ink

His 2011 novel, Vigilante, is an action-packed story about a soldier who sets out to change the world. Later this year, he's releasing his first ever Young Adult novel, titled Corridor. Always pushing the envelope, ever on the edge of where modern storytelling is going, Robin Parrish will gladly and unapologetically tell you that he's an entertainer, a weaver of stories that ignite the mind ...

Vigilante Robin Parrish

Robin Parrish in his new book, "Vigilante", published by Bethany House brings us into a world where a modern hero wants to operate outside of the law. In the old pulp novels of the thirties and forties the pages were full of heroes who decided the law needed their help to bring down bad guys, dressed up behind a mask and sometimes cape, to provide that help.
