This book explains that we, the living, are the heaven for all of our deceased loved ones. The deceased continue to love us from beyond, and thus their energies linger to ensure that the relationships continue. I think this message is simply beautiful. And, I've recommended this book because of its focus on love, optimism and hope.

We Are Their Heaven: Why the Dead Never Leave Us by ...

There is a heaven, a flawless place where we exist after we die. There are white skies and blue water that the eyes of the living cannot see. There are children running through perfect blades of brilliant emerald grass with sunshine bouncing off every strand of their hair. There are old men fishing on the same banks that they fished from when they were boys, with the puppy that died when they were small.
