Nevertheless, it is possible to describe some general similarities which tend to be common among quite a few atheists, particularly atheists in the West. It is, however, important to remember that nothing in these general descriptions is necessarily common to all atheists , and even when atheists do share

W Loftis
Normally, people become atheists for four major reasons. I was influenced by some of these reasons to become a theist-leaning-agnostic for a period of time.

While the atheist will claim to be a “free-
thinker,” he or she is often imprisoned by emotionalism rather than reason.
