Zahra's Paradise by Amir - Goodreads

Zahra's Paradise is the latest in a slew of projects that have successfully filtered politics and history through the medium of the graphic novel – although the book's series of epilogues about the story's symbolism, the Green Revolution, public executions, and the victims of the regime, among other things, suggests that a more strictly prosaic work may be in the offing.

Zahra's Paradise - Institute for Policy Studies

Sometimes comic books capture a zeitgeist. The pro-democracy movements in the Middle East, the world-wide Occupy protests, the general sense that the priorities of those in power are counter to the interests of those disenfranchised, all point to the fact that people are tired of not being heard. Zahra's Paradise, a new graphic novel from [...]
